

REDUCING GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS THROUGH IMPROVED ENERGY EFFICIENCY IN THE INDUSTRIAL SECTOR IN MOLDOVA

Energy Management in Industry – The low cost way to reduce your company's energy bills through a systematic approach to energy management

Seminar

Leograd Hotel & Convention Center,
mun. Chisinau, #77, Mitropolit Varlaam St.
Tuesday, 28 June 2011

Tentative Agenda

08:30 – 9:00	Registration
09:00 – 9:20	Welcoming remarks H.E., Gheorghe SALARU, Minister of Environment Mr. Vadim Cebanu, Ministry of Economy
09:20 – 09:40	Introduction and purpose of meeting A new day in energy management Mr. Liam Mc Laughlin, Director, Energy Efficiency, Energy Services Ltd.
09:40 – 10:20	Energy Efficiency in Industry – Issues and Opportunities Mr. Richard Morrison, Principal Energy Consultant, RPS Group
10:20 – 10:40	Coffee break
10:40 – 11:10	Energy Management and ISO50001 - Making Energy Efficiency part of your culture and operations Mr. Liam Mc Laughlin, Director, Energy Efficiency, Energy Services Ltd.
11:10 – 11:30	Energy system optimization Mr. Richard Morrison, Principal Energy Consultant, RPS Group
11:30 – 11:40	Energy Management and ISO50001 – Counting the costs and benefits Mr. Liam Mc Laughlin, Director, Energy Efficiency, Energy Services Ltd.
11:40 – 12:00	Industrial Energy Efficiency – Moldova context Prof. Aurel Gutu, Technical University of Moldova
12:00 – 12:15	How to benefit from the UNIDO-GEF Project Mr. Vasile Scorpan, Manager of Climate Change Office.
12:15 – 12:30	Agency on Energy Efficiency of the Republic of Moldova: Planned Activities in Short Term Perspectives Mr. Mihai Stratan, Director of Agency on Energy Efficiency of the Republic of Moldova
12:30 – 12:45	Wrap up and next steps Mr. Vasile Scorpan, Manager of Climate Change Office.
12:45 – 14:00	Lunch